By SUSANNE INDELICATO

PONTOON BEACH — Two employees were hired by the village and raises were given to two current employees Thursday, but not without disagreement among Village Board trustees.

The board created and filled the position of street superintendent for the village. Junior Bennett, former village police chief, was appointed as street superintendent and will be paid $8 an hour for a 40-hour week.

BOARD PRESIDENT Glen Wilson objected to the action.

"In my opinion, if you create a job for $8 an hour we don't need it. I don't understand it," he said.

But Trustee Loren Madison, who made the motion for a street superintendent, disagreed.

"WE JUST paid an awful lot of money, in overtime to the police officers. It was in the bill list and we don't even have an ordinance (allowing overtime). But I do feel we need a street superintendent."

"It's kind of hard to create a position when we don't have a rake, we don't have a shovel and we don't have a lawnmower," Trustee Bob Vincent responded.

Trustee Don Rea supported the move, saying the street signs in the village were in "deplorable" condition and that some street names were changed but the street signs have not been replaced. Rea also said there were weeds along the shoulders of roads in the village.

"WE CAN pass a resolution amending our motor fuel tax budget to include activities on street-related items," Rea said about paying the superintendent. "That's reimbursable from motor fuel taxes."

"We need a police officer more than we need a street superintendent at $8 an hour," Vincent responded.

"I think the whole problem with Georgetown (Drive) could have been avoided if we had someone down there," Madison said, referring to the street.

Big parade on Labor Day

A large parade to mark Labor Day is set for 10 a.m. Monday, proceeding from Edison and Niedringhaus avenues along Niedringhaus, Madison Avenue and 29th Street to Wilson Park.

Participants will include labor organizations, floats, the Granite City High School band, Almad Shrine units, veterans' groups, baton twirlers, color guard, and public officials and community agencies.

Treats will be given out to youngsters on sidewalks during the parade.

Grand marshal is Robert Means, United Steelworkers of America director of coordinated bargaining, and parade queens are Rhonda Vest and Jackie Greer.

Refreshments, a softball game and a tag-of-war are planned at Wilson Park following the parade.

Council votes against meters

GRANITE CITY — An ordinance to remove parking meters from nine streets in the downtown area was placed on first reading by the City Council Tuesday night. If it is approved, the areas currently occupied by parking meters would become two-hour parking zones.

Although some aldermen said they preferred to hold up the meter removal until a city coordinator could be hired, the ordinance was approved on first reading by a 7 to 6 vote.

MAYOR VON DEE CRUSE said he might not be in favor of the parking meter removal if the downtown had "booming" business.

"But it's not normal business downtown," he said. "You don't find too many downtowns today in our situation, that have parking meters."

Alderman Sam Whitmer, 2nd Ward, said he would prefer to wait.

"THAT'S WHY we're hiring a city coordinator — so we have a professional person to decide these things," he said. "We need to get someone experienced in these things — then let's follow him."

Fourth Ward Alderwoman Sharon Perjak said removal of parking meters probably would not be a high priority on the coordinator's list.

"This (ordinance) is for a trial basis on just those nine streets," she said. "We have to start someplace to help the downtown. We should do what we can."

PAUL PISK, 3rd Ward alderman, said he would like to delay the ordinance's passage although the coordinator might decide to remove the parking meters anyway.

"In Belleville, they took the parking meters off the main streets but kept them on the side streets," he said.

"They took the money they received from the parking meters (See METERS, Page 9A)

Trustees, developer reach impasse

PONTOON BEACH — A standoff between the Pontoon Beach Village Board of Trustees and developer Darrell Layman continues.

A new plat showing two new lots on Georgetown Drive, where Layman is building homes, was rejected by the trustees Thursday.

LAYMAN submitted the new plat after his attorney, Mark Goldenberg, and village attorney Keith Jensen agreed that the plat met the village's zoning ordinances.

The new plat shows eight lots instead of the original six around the cul-de-sac at the end of Georgetown Drive in Lakeview Estates. It also provides for a 10-foot easement for drainage, although no drainage ditch was shown on the plat.

Layman told the trustees he changed the number of lots and their sizes because "I'm spending a lot of money on curb and guttering and on the road that's a mess, and I need the money."

THE HOUSES on the lots will be (See PLAT, Page 9A)

Surprising backgrounds behind nicknames of area residents

By SUSAN SIGNAIGO-WEICH
Staff writer

What's in a name? Or maybe a better question would be what's in a nickname?

If you've ever stopped to think about it, there are some pretty unusual names in the news. And some of those names belong to local employees, politicians and realtors.

Perhaps the most unusual name a Quad-City Area resident will come across belongs to the mayor of Granite City — Von Dee Cruse.

Just to set the record straight, the mayor's full name is Harold Von Dee Cruse, although he seldom uses the name Harold.

According to Von Dee, his name was coined by his Aunt Ethel when he was born. Cruse is a name that is a combination of German and Dutch origins.

With that in mind, his aunt combined the royalty titles for persons of those origins — Von being the royal title for Germans and Dee being the royal title for the Dutch.

Von Dee says he used the name his whole life and jokingly claims he didn't even know his real first name was Harold until he was in the U.S. Army.

Von Dee says his name has given him some trouble, especially when making hotel reservations.

"Just the other day, when I went to register at a hotel in Springfield for a convention, I told the clerk I had a reservation for Cruse," he said. "The man looked at the book and told me there must be a mistake, because he had no reservations for anyone under that name."

"I told him I had the confirmation in my pocket and when he looked at it, he said, 'Oh! Dee Cruse, we have that name.'"

Another rather interesting name belongs to Walter "Shang" Grathouse, president of Metro East Sanitary District.

Shang got his name when he was 6 years old.

"I was a pretty good ballplayer over at Emerson School — I played third base," he said.

"One day the catcher on my team got hit by the bat, and it knocked

Von Dee jokingly claims he didn't even know his real first name was Harold until he was in the U.S. Army some of his teeth out. So I went to play catcher.

"At that time, there was a catcher for the Chicago Cubs named Wally Shang. Since my name is Walter, they started calling me Shang."

A Granite City alderman also boasts a pretty unusual nickname — Everett "Cherry Picker" Morlen.

Although there seems to be some controversy surrounding the reason for Morlen's nickname, Cherry Picker claims this is the real story.

"Back in 1937, I was sitting in the weigh ingots office at Granite City Steel," he said. "One of the other guys that was sitting there was the switchman, Bob Linsen."

"Bob used to tease people just like the rest of us did. While we were sitting there he said to me 'You know, you're the only man I know who can hang by his nose and pick cherries, with both hands.'"

"He was trying to rile me by making fun of my nose."

Willard "Butch" Portell, circuit court clerk of Macou County, said his nickname was coined when he was a sophomore at Granite City High School.

"I was a running back with the high school football team and we played a game against University City," he said. "After the game, there were a lot of people hurt on the other team."

"The coach of the University City team came over and talked to our coach after the game and he said, 'That darn butcher you have on the team hurt some of my players.' He was talking about me."

"Well, our coach thought that was pretty funny and he started calling me 'the butcher.'"

"The name eventually got shortened down to just Butch and it stuck. Back in those days, one little incident like that could give a person a nickname for life."

"I didn't care that they were calling me Butch. I just didn't want them to call me Willard."

Although R.C. Bush, the new executive vice president of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce, does not have a nickname, he does have an unusual story to tell about how he got his first name.

R.C. said his father's initials were R.C. and his father wanted the boy to have the same name. But the elder R.C. didn't want R.C. to be called Junior. So he gave his son the name R.C. without the periods between the letters.

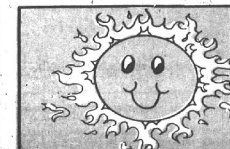

R.C. said his father really hated (See NAMES, Page 9A)

Readers requested to express opinions

September 1, 1985/Page 2A
Granite City Press-Record/Journal Sunday

The Thursday edition of the Granite City Press-Record is a time-honored tradition of immense community significance. From birth through marriage, noting life's pitfalls and accomplishments, to the death of loved ones, we've covered the lives of generations of readers.

The young people of Granite City, the Press-Record/Journal and the finest newspaper traditions by continuing to be papers of record, providing the latest possible local news by keeping an ear to the heart of the community.

The relatively new development of serving the community three times each week is a welcomed challenge. By publishing three weekly, we are able to bring more news of the events in a more timely manner to those who matter most — you.

The senior members of our news staff say the public is getting more local news now than ever before, and story counts support the premise. But our goal is better service, not patting ourselves on the back. Over the years, each of the newspapers have changed to meet readers' needs because public service is what we're all about.

Which brings us to the point. Recently, this newspaper conducted a seminar to help local organization members understand how to get news about their clubs in the paper. During the conversation, we asked about the way the papers were organized in terms of putting similar news together.

For example, in the Wednesday and Sunday papers, police news is all in one place, but it's scattered throughout the Thursday and Friday papers. The seminar participants unanimously said they would like to see such news under one heading.

One lady explained she went looking through the paper for a birth announcement, but since those announcements are in the same place, she had to go through the entire paper twice to find it. The same can be said for club news.

Such comments make us wonder if we're serving readers as well as we could. Perhaps the public would like the papers organized differently.

We're a paper that believes in listening to the public, and we want to know what we can do to improve your Sunday, Wednesday and Thursday papers. For this reason, we have provided a questionnaire in this issue.

Please fill it out. Your opinions, and the opinions of your neighbors, are important to us. And please don't neglect to fill out the section for "other comments." You very well could have a valuable idea we haven't considered.

Thank you for the effort.

Directions: Please evaluate the following statements in terms of how to make the newspaper meet your needs. Circle the appropriate answer. When you are finished, please mail or drop off your replies to the Press-Record/Journal, 1815 Delmar, Granite City, Ill., 62040.

Annexation could be bad for community

In the state of Illinois, ask the average citizens what type of government they have and they probably won't know.

You may have state government, county, city, village, township, districts and special service areas. Just to name a few, and maybe all of those. What we need is an educational program for citizens and elected officials if this area of Madison County is going to attract business and growth.

The most damaging legislation for this area, passed many years ago, allows a city to be co-terminus within a township. This law was passed with good intentions but has grown into a nightmare for the townships and fire districts that surround such a city. What is a co-terminus city-township? We have two in Madison County, Granite City and Alton.

A co-terminus city-township, created by legislation, is a city that, when it reaches a certain size, can form a new township within itself. As we all know, Granite City is made up of former parts of Venice, Chouteau and Nameoki townships. This area was taken out and lost by those townships.

At the time this legislation was adopted, visions of tax savings were projected by combining the city with the township. But Granite City still has a township supervisor, assessor and clerk. And all the aldermen are paid extra for being members of the township board. So it didn't do much in that respect.

What it has done, however, is to stop the growth of this area. For those who live outside of the city, townships and fire districts must resist annexation to save their tax base.

That very reason is why the Village of Pontoon Beach was formed in the first place, and that is why the village is growing. Annexation by Pontoon Beach does not change the township or fire district lines.

Subdivisions caught between the city and the village are the most confused. They want services that cannot be provided by the township form of government, and their desires are kept going by a city official who says, "The city will pay one-half if the township pays one-half of this drainage project (or what have you)," but townships do not have drainage powers or any powers of an incorporated city or village.

This is the time for the co-terminus cities to change this damaging attitude and work with their neighbors for the good of the area. One example is the prime location that the Village of Pontoon Beach had proposed for the General Motors plant. It would not have done any harm for Granite City to join in the support for this area.

The Village of Pontoon Beach will be part of Nameoki Township, Chouteau Township, Collinsville Township and Edwardsville Township without any resistance from them because our services will not interfere with theirs.

Pontoon Beach would welcome the subdivisions around Granite City to annex without any legal problems from the existing townships and fire districts, and for a substantial savings in taxes.

But the unincorporated areas must remember to learn these simple rules: Do I need incorporated services? How much will they cost? What type of government will I pay for?

Some health clubs can rub you the wrong way

Last Sunday this newspaper ran an article advising consumers on health clubs. Had that article appeared two days earlier, I would have been prepared for what happened to me the previous Sunday.

It all began three weeks ago with a trip to a pizza parlor. Bored and tired of waiting for service, I picked up a card from a display on the counter. The card allowed me to register for two free weeks at a St. Louis area health club. Since I had been considering joining a health club, I filled out the card and dropped it in the box.

A week later I was notified I had won the two free weeks and an appointment for Friday evening was made so I could "familiarize" myself with the club.

I showed up Friday, dressed out for a workout. A cheery young woman greeted me and we sat down on a couch to discuss me and my desire to join a health club.

"What do you do for a living?" I was asked.

"I'm a reporter in Granite City," I answered.

"How exciting!" the woman squealed.

Funny, I had never really thought about my work that way. I was asked what my husband did for a living, had I ever belonged to a health club, and a question very germane to my interest in a health club: "Is that diamond (on my wedding ring) a full carat?"

Columnists' club
Susanne Indelicato

After we discussed me, we moved on to the workout floor where about 25 women were jumping up and down with an aerobic leader.

I was put on an exercise bike, which I rode for the longest two minutes I think I have ever been through. Then we moved on to the weight machines to work on slimming my thighs.

I had told the woman I wanted to slim my thighs simply because I couldn't think of anything else to say. I didn't need to lose weight and I didn't need to gain weight. "Firm and tone" seemed like the only choice left.

After working out on the weight machines, in which my thighs were tugged, pulled and stretched, we ventured into a back room with a steam room, sauna and whirlpool bath.

"Feel that water," I was told. I reached into the whirlpool.

"It's warm," I said.

It must have been the right response, for a grin spread across the woman's face.

"It's the perfect way to relax after a vigorous workout," I was told.

Next, we came back to the workout room, and I was led to a table in the corner.

"When I come back for my two free weeks, do I have to present a card or will they have my name?" I innocently asked as we sat down. My question was a natural lead-in for the purpose of our table-sitting.

"Actually, the two free weeks apply toward a membership," the woman said. "We've got a special going on this week, and I know you'd be mad if I didn't tell you about it."

The special consisted of bonus years, which could be obtained by paying an initial fee and then monthly payments. When I added all the fees and payments together in my head, I could see there was no way I could afford it.

"I don't think so," I said. I was immediately shown another plan in which the payments were lower, but the payment period was longer.

"Listen," I said. "My husband doesn't even know I'm here. I'd really like to discuss this with him before joining."

"Why don't you call him?" A telephone was shoved in front of me.

"No, really," I tried again. "I'm interested in joining a health club. Can't you just show me your membership plans and let me think about it?"

That was good enough for the manager to come over.

"I'll tell you what, Sue," the manager said. "We usually only offer our VIP lifetime memberships to members who get us another member, but I'll give it to you now if you sign up under our special."

"I said, trying to keep my temper under control. I don't want a lifetime membership. I don't want to join for three or four years. I just want to look at your membership plans and consider them."

"O.K.," the manager said disgustedly to the woman sitting with me. "Show her our term memberships."

We then went through various years of term memberships.

"Which do you want?" They were bound and determined to get me to sign a contract before leaving, it seemed.

"I'll call you," I said as I ran to the door.

I liked the health club. I liked its facilities. I probably could afford at least one of the membership plans. But I won't join.

I won't be coerced into joining and I won't let her how great it is. And I won't join a health club that gets people to come in by misleading them with a so-called prize of two free weeks.

The Better Business Bureau says reputable businesses don't pressure people into making quick decisions. There are reputable health clubs, and that's the kind of club I'll eventually join.

Caring staff eases life for ill person

To the Editor:

I am writing to the Press-Record/Journal to compliment our St. Elizabeth Medical Center and also the Granite City ambulance team.

Recently my mother's life was at stake in a crisis again; twice we needed emergency help in two months.

We were well taken care of by the ambulance, the staff in the emergency room, X-ray technicians, blood work technicians, and later the whole staff on the 5th floor. Actually, I am thankful to everyone at SEMC.

My mother now has cancer of the lung. She is very weak, and at times is a difficult patient, but the staff worked with her.

Also, I am getting acquainted with the Hospice program at SEMC. Dr. Ahmad, our doctor, and Sister Mary Louise of SEMC talked with me first on the Hospice program. Let me say I feel so much better with the program helping our family.

On Wednesdays at 7 p.m. at SEMC and Doctors in the classroom, a new group is beginning. Known as "The Support Group," it is for family members and friends of people with cancer.

Also deserving thanks are the SEMC priest and Pastor Samuel Boda, St. John Lutheran Church, St. Elizabeth Medical Center and all others for being there with love and concern for our family.

Some public relations people hurt own causes

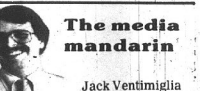

Talk about hard sell.

Some public relations practitioners will not take "no" for an answer.

This is especially true, it seems, for those who use the government's money. They don't mind unnecessary extra mailings, since it's not their money.

And when we've called to tell them there's no need to repeat the same releases, we've been made to feel as though we're attacking motherhood.

It is not at all unusual for us to get the same announcement three times. Perhaps these government-oriented people think a newspaper needs announcements in triplicate, but that is not so.

The media mandarin

One area college is insistent that its release not be missed. The same announcement, often in the exact same words or casually disguised, comes into this office 10 or more times during each registration period.

Obviously, we can't run the release each time it's sent. The publicist might think there's no problem with that, since they must think we will run it at least a few times.

But there are disadvantages our

Country picnic his lifetime interest

By RACHEL NEWSOME
A country picnic is how Harry Breckner depicts the first annual Mitchell Fall Festival.

The original festival, 26 years ago, consisted of three "kiddie" rides, chicken dinners (ordered in advance), a dunking booth and two or three games. The result: "a country picnic," said Breckner, who's the leading coordinator and a charter member of the Mitchell Athletic Club.

"IT WAS ON A Saturday afternoon. Mostly, local Mitchell residents attended and everyone knew each other. It was like a gathering," he recalled.

"We had a lot of fun. There was a beer garden and the atmosphere was more easy going."

The first festival only cleared $600, but the club didn't expect to make a great deal of money, Breckner explained.

"Those who participated were very enthusiastic."

"THEY WANTED to see if they could make it happen. There was some apprehension," he said.

After three or four years of repeat performances, the festival was obviously successful. It was now time to move on to bigger, better and flashier things.

Big names in local entertainment, traveling carnivals and numerous booths became the norm.

"We had to scale down the entertainment however, through the years — it was according to the economy. It's a gamble when you have big names. Why, we paid $2,500 for entertainment alone, at one time," Breckner said.

"NAME BANDS drew the people — now entertainment is expected each year," he laughed.

Help-wise, the club used to be able to obtain many more enthusiastic volunteers than now.

For the past 20 years, people have been busier. Mothers and fathers are both working and they don't participate as much as they used to, he said.

MITCHELL VOLUNTEERS aiding sports programs include Wendell Corey (left) and Harry Breckner, who succeeded Corey as the athletic club's coordinator. (Photo by Susie Thomas Harris)

"THE OLD-TIMERS have stayed with us, but it is hard to get them to work the long hours."

"We have to kind of change each year."

Harry Breckner's life, however, has had little room for change.

For the past 10 years, he has scheduled his two-week vacations around the festival, taking one week before and the other week immediately after.

"HE WORKS very hard at it. It takes a lot of work and a lot of long hours," said Mrs. Breckner.

Breckner has also been involved in the coaching aspect of the club. Having three children, one girl and two boys, he has had the experience of coaching softball, baseball and soccer.

"The festival is what makes all these athletic activities possible for the kids. Referees, umpires and the care of the facilities all take money," he noted.

AT THIS YEAR'S Mitchell festival, there were bright, flashing, rainbow-colored lights, loud music, joyful screams, rumbling carnival rides and the smell of popcorn, fish and beer.

All are a part of the large undertaking the fall festival has become.

"I liked the quiet type (of celebration) better," Breckner acknowledged, adding: "But to generate money and make it all work, we've had to expand."

Park director candidates will be interviewed soon

By DAVE WHALEY
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — A new parks and recreation director may be named on Sept. 25.

Park Board President George Sykes said Wednesday he had received 22 resumes for the job. He will pass them on to other board members to read.

He hopes interviews of candidates will start Sept. 14 and conclude Sept. 21, with the new director to be named Sept. 25 at the board's regular monthly meeting.

SYKES HAS PREPARED a timetable for the next month. He is preparing a letter to be sent to each applicant acknowledging the receipt of his resume, along with an official application form to be filled out.

"On that, we will ask them to indicate the approximate salary required," Sykes said. "Most of them didn't indicate that."

"I'm aware that most professional resumes will not have the salary on them, but it is important to us to know what figure they're thinking of. If somebody puts down $40,000, there's one right there we know we won't be able to deal with."

Applicants will have two weeks to return the applications or it will be assumed they are no longer interested in the job.

"I THINK IT IS important to write back to them soon, because some of them sent their applications in the first part of July and are probably wondering what's going on," Sykes said.

After all the resumes have been looked over by all board members, each applicant's qualifications will be reviewed at the Sept. 4 meeting (Wednesday's meeting was recessed until next Wednesday at 6:30 p.m.), with recommendations to be made on those the board members think are worth of bringing in for interviews.

The board then hopes to start interviews of out-of-town candidates on Saturday, Sept. 14, with a time limit of an hour and a half for each candidate. The board would interview as many as five out-of-town candidates that day.

INTERVIEWS OF LOCAL candidates would be held in the evening on Sept. 16, 18 and 19, with a maximum of three each night. If there are any more out-of-town candidates to be interviewed, they would be brought in Sept. 21.

Candidates will be asked to bring references, and Sykes said those references, as well as the candidate's last or current employer, will be contacted before the Sept. 25 meeting.

"After the Sept. 21 interviews, we hope to narrow our choices down to a very short list and then make the final contacts," Sykes said. "We would then hope to make our selection at the Sept. 25 meeting and come up with our salary offer then."

IT WAS AGREED at least three commissioners should be present for all interviews, which will be held in closed sessions at the Wilson Park office. Board members agreed to interview each candidate for an hour and then spend the remaining half hour discussing him.

"That will let us talk about him with the interview still fresh in our minds," said Barry Loman.

Sykes said the board should come to the interviews with at least some uniform questions ready.

"I KNOW DURING the course of an interview some other questions will naturally come up, but we should have some questions prepared that we ask all of them," he said.

The board has been without a director since June 21, when Dave Nolan resigned to take a job at Washington University in St. Louis. Nolan had been retained as a consultant to the park district until that relationship was terminated Aug. 14.

Stretch of interstate opens this month

FAIRVIEW HEIGHTS — A stretch of Interstate 255 from Route 3 to Route 15 will open sometime this month, an Illinois Department of Transportation official said recently.

Once the new stretch opens, motorists will be able to travel on I-255 from the Jefferson Barracks Bridge to Interstate 64.

The stretch of I-255 from Route 3 to Route 15 will open "by the end of September if everything goes well, especially the weather," Fred Bartelsmeyer, IDOT District 8 assistant district engineer, said recently. "It could be earlier."

Two stretches of I-255 currently are open to motorists. The two stretches run from Route 3 in Dupu to the J.B. Bridge and from I-64 to Route 15.

Construction of I-255 began in 1970, Bartelsmeyer said. When completed, the project will cost an estimated $550 million.

After the opening of I-255 from Route 3 to Route 15, two more stages of the interstate are planned. The first will run from I-64 to Interstate 5570 in Collinsville, and the second will run from I-5570 in Collinsville to Interstate 270 near Edwardsville, Bartelsmeyer said.

The stretch of I-255 from I-64 to I-5570 is projected to open late next year, possibly early December 1986. Depending on funding, the second stretch from I-5570 to I-270 will open sometime in the next two to three years.

The entire interstate project is scheduled for completion in 1989. Bartelsmeyer said the second span of the J.B. bridge could be completed by 1980 if discretionary funds from the federal government are available.

Construction of the second span of wardsville, Bartelsmeyer said.

Construction of the second span of the J.B. Bridge is "entirely dependent upon discretionary funding," and will be completed about two years after funding becomes available, Bartelsmeyer said.

Kent Muskopf, IDOT planning engineer, said recently that an average of 16,300 motorists travel daily on I-255 from the J.B. Bridge to the Columbia exit on Route 3.

From Dupu to Columbia, an average of 13,500 motorists travel daily on I-255, and from Dupu to Route 3 in Cahokia, an average of 10,500 motorists travel daily on the interstate.

Christology course offered

"Salvation Through the Person of Jesus Christ" will be presented by the Rev. Gary Perret at the St. Joseph Catholic Church basement, 2101 State St., starting Monday, Sept. 9, from 7 to 8:30 p.m. and continuing weekly for six weeks.

The basic theme of the course will be a call to a personal relationship with Jesus. Main source of study will be St. Paul's gradually deepening awareness and personal relationship to the resurrected Christ, as seen in his letters to the Romans, Galatians and Ephesians. Each person is to bring a Bible to the class sessions.

This course is sponsored by the Diocesan Catholic Education Office. Catechists seeking certification will receive two Catechist units in the category of Christology.

Rezoning hearings slated

Requests for rezoning for a business district and for a special use permit for a dentist's office will be the topic of on-site hearings set for Monday, Sept. 9.

The Madison County Zoning Board of Appeals will meet at 9:45 a.m. to consider the request of Jerry A. Link, executor of the estate of Arthur Link, owner, and Gregory and Maryann Jones for a special use permit to establish a dental office at 3704 Pontoon Road. The property is located in an R-3 one-family residence district in Nameoki Township.

At 10:05 a.m., the board will meet at 4917 Maryville Road to consider the request of Chester E. Wythers Sr., owner, and Cheryl Crawford, purchaser. They want to rezone a tract of land from an R-3 one-family residence district to a B-3 highway business district in Chouteau Township.

Another on-site hearing is set for 10:20 a.m. Leo and Gladys Glasper, owners, are asking for a special use permit to continue the placement of a mobile home in an R-4 single-family residence district in Venice Township. The property is located at 113 Allen St.

Life prison sentence for Inman in murder

Thomas Inman, 34, of Granite City was sentenced Wednesday to serve a life sentence in prison for the murder of Steven E. Gerstenecker, 27, Troy, Feb. 26.

St. Clair County Circuit Judge Richard Hudlin also sentenced Inman to 30 years in prison, concurrently with the life sentence, for wounding John Fink, 26, Troy.

Mr. Gerstenecker was stabbed with a hunting knife on a ramp at Route 3 and Interstates 55-70 in East St. Louis.

Inman was convicted at Belleville in July of murder, attempted murder and armed violence. Two of his companions are awaiting trial for attempted murder, armed violence and aggravated battery.

Woman alleges battery; car hit by assailant

Veronica K. Shafer of 21 Parktowne West told police Aug. 30 she was battered and sexually involved in a car chase that resulted in several collisions. She said a man struck her in the face several times with his fist at her home; he continued to threaten her and she left her apartment to enter her car.

The man had let the air out of her car's tires. She got in the car anyway and drove to a gasoline station. Enroute to the station, the man began to follow her in his auto and struck her vehicle several times, she related.

When Shafer got to the station, she told the cashier what happened and asked her to call the police, but the cashier refused to do so. After getting air in her car's tires, Shafer drove to the East Granite area in an attempt to lose the man following her.

She next drove to St. Clair Avenue and, when she attempted to turn right onto Willow Avenue, the man swung his truck around and struck her vehicle, blocking the road. She fled the scene and went to a restaurant at 27th Street and Madison Avenue where she flagged down a policeman. The man following her left the scene.

Garrett enters not guilty plea

Madison County Board member Don Garrett, D-Madison, and four others charged in connection with alleged violations of tavern closing hours have pleaded innocent in Circuit Court in Granite City.

The pleas were entered last week with a request for a jury trial.

Garrett faces two misdemeanor charges of obstructing justice filed July 27. He was alleged by an officer to have interfered the previous week with questioning of two barmen of the El Capaloro Lounge, 800 Jackson Street, Madison.

Four persons were arrested July 20 and charged with violating tavern closing hours. They include John Garrett, described as owner of the tavern and Don Garrett's brother; Curtis Jenkins, who Don Garrett identified as his brother-in-law; and barmen Lucetta Brown and Delores Edmund.

Arrests were made after patrons were discovered in the tavern about a half-hour after closing time, police said. Don Garrett said Jenkins is not employed by his brother but "helps him out without pay."

The case will not necessarily go to trial, said Granite City attorney Casper Nighohossian, who is representing the five. He said it could be settled before it reaches the trial stage.

In May, the El Capaloro was the site of gambling arrests by state law enforcement agents. Twelve persons were arrested. Don Garrett and Jenkins were charged with keeping a gambling place.

The charge against Don Garrett was dismissed in July by a Madison County circuit judge, who found that Don Garrett did not own or operate the lounge, nor was he present when officers arrived.

In addition to the County Board, Garrett serves on the Madison City Council and the Madison School Board. All three are elective positions.

GIRL, 16, BEATEN

A 16-year-old girl was beaten Aug. 27 at Wilson Park. She had gone to the park to watch a softball game and encountered a 17-year-old girl with whom she had had problems in the past. The girl punched her repeatedly in the head, knocking her to the ground, and then kicked her several times in the head.

State assails pipeline firm

SPRINGFIELD — Illinois Commerce Commission (ICC) Chairman Philip O'Connor has accused Panhandle Eastern Pipeline Corp. mismanagement "reckless disregard" of its customers in its gas purchasing practices.

The ICC is asking the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC) to order Panhandle Eastern to refund to customers $232 million in alleged overcharges for 1984 and early 1985.

Five weeks of testimony were heard in the case before a federal administrative judge in June.

In briefs newly filed with FERC, the ICC contends Panhandle exhibited "conscious corporate negligence by purchasing expensive gas from its own affiliate (Trunkline) rather than cheaper and readily available gas from other suppliers."

"As a result of Panhandle's purchasing policies, customers left the system, thereby not only increasing the burden on those with no alternative sources who were forced to remain but also causing its own customer base to shrink over the long term," O'Connor said.

"Panhandle has shown a reckless disregard for providing its customers with service at the lowest reasonable rate."

The ICC initiated the action seeking recovery to customers from Panhandle Eastern in March 1984.

Utilities receiving natural gas supplies from Panhandle Eastern include Illinois Power Co.

UNAUTHORIZED SOLICITOR CHARGED BY GC POLICE

Ronald Dunbar, 17, of Granite City was charged after going door-to-door soliciting funds for the Muscular Dystrophy Association. When questioned being stopped Aug. 27 at 25th and Benton streets, Dunbar was quoted as saying he was not involved with the MDA but was acting independently.

Authorities said he acknowledged he had been warned twice previously to stop or face arrest.

CHARGED WITH DUI ON HIGHWAY 111 AT PONTON

John V. Brandt, 31, of Edwardsville was charged with driving while under the influence after he was stopped by Ponton Beach police on Route 111 at Chain of Rocks Road Aug. 29.

Officers alleged he was northbound in a southbound lane of Route 111, running a police car off the road and into a ditch. The officer followed Brandt's car, stopping him at Chain of Rocks Road. Brandt also was charged with improper lane usage and having no valid registration.

GUY BRILEY SHOT IN ARM, COLLAPSES IN MITCHELL

Guy T. Briley of 720 E. Chain of Rocks Road, Mitchell, was shot in the upper part of his right arm Aug. 28. Madison County sheriff's deputies were dispatched to Central Lane on a call that a man had been wounded, and upon arrival learned the man had been taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

Virgil Tomlinson, 4060 Central Lane, told officers Briley came to his back door and fell inside the house when the door was opened. Authorities learned Briley was a contractor doing work on the house at 4060 Central.

No suspect in the shooting was located. The sheriff's department was assisted by Ponton Beach police and Illinois State Police in the investigation.

DRIVERS REPORT THEFTS FROM TRUCKS IN VENICE

Valuable papers, clothing and other items were stolen from two tractor-trailer trucks while they were parked near Curley's Diner, 1000 Broadway, Venice, Aug. 28. Jim Montgomery of Silver, Mo., said a burglar pushed in a wing window on his Green Tree Transportation Co. truck and stole a portable television set, a radio, a briefcase containing a travel log, registration and other papers, and a suitcase full of clothing.

John Zerjov of Warrenton, Mo., a driver for Pioneer Transportation Co. of Hurlock, Md., said his vehicle was burglarized and a briefcase, papers and a suitcase containing clothing items were missing.

WOMAN BATTERED AT HOME

Mary Smith, 2147 Lee Ave., was beaten in her home Aug. 27. She was punched in the head, slapped several times and pushed around by a man who left the scene when she called police.

STEREO TAKEN BY BURGLAR

A portable AM-FM stereo cassette player was taken in a burglary at 2527 Nameoki Drive Aug. 27 along with $50 in coins from a plastic container. Nora Chancellor valued the stereo at $266.

TWO ARE ARRESTED FOR SMASHING WINDSHIELD

Two men were arrested for allegedly smashing the windshield of another car with a baseball bat while they were traveling along Edwardsville Road Aug. 28.

Joseph North, 26, of 2422r Madison Ave., Apt. B, and Robert North, 46, of 2415 Hemlock Ave., were arrested on charges of criminal damage to property.

The car they occupied was in the left southbound lane and was pursuing an auto driven by Steve Mauldin, 2130a Benton St. It was contended; one of the Norths allegedly reached out with the bat and smashed the windshield. Tommy McCormick, also of 2130a Benton St., was a passenger in Mauldin's car.

ARRESTED AFTER ACCIDENT IN LOT ON PONTON ROAD

David Keith Wimberly, 24, of 1004 23rd St. was arrested Aug. 29 after he was involved in a traffic accident. Charged with violating an order of protection, he was freed on $102 bail.

Tamara S. Wimberly, 21, of 317 W. Chain of Rocks Road told police she had an order of protection and her husband attempted to talk to her son while they were in the parking lot of Ervay's Restaurant, 2200 Ponton Road. Mrs. Wimberly alleged her husband tried to block her car from exiting the parking lot, and an accident occurred.

DUI ALLEGED AFTER CRASH AT 162-NAMEOKI ROAD

Fred Torrez, 38, of 2101 Glen Drive was arrested Aug. 29 after an accident at Route 162 and Nameoki Road. Charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol, he was taken to St. Elizabeth Medical Center by Granite City ambulance.

The other car was driven by Kathleen M. Cleveland, 25, Arlington Heights. She was injured and was taken to SEMC by ambulance. Cleveland said she was going south on 162 when Torrez made a left turn from the northbound lane.

DRIVER BOOKED FOR DUI

Leo J. Furtak, 36, of 1624 Courtney Blvd. was arrested in the 1500 block of Johnson Road Aug. 29 for driving while under the influence of alcohol and driving in the wrong lane. Police alleged seeing his car being driven at about 5 miles per hour and in the wrong lane.

CAR HITS PARKED AUTO

James G. Voght, 44, of 827 Iowa St. was arrested for driving while under the influence of alcohol Aug. 29 in the 1900 block of Cleveland Blvd. after his auto collided with a parked car owned by the Steele-Kunemann Agency. The impact knocked the parked vehicle over the curb.

CAR HITS TRAFFIC POST

Edward T. Fleig, 25, St. Louis, was arrested at Illinois Route 3 Aug. 29 for driving while under the influence of alcohol after his car was involved in an accident. He said he was northbound when he saw a traffic light was red and couldn't stop in time. His car swerved to the right and hit a traffic post.

Daryl Lindsey

Daryl E. Lindsey, 21, of Granite City died at 7:45 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 29, 1985, at St. Elizabeth Medical Center following a lengthy illness.

Mr. Lindsey was born June 12, 1964. He was of the Protestant faith. Among the survivors are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benton J. (Betty) Lindsey of Granite City.

Arrangements were pending at Irwin Chapel for Funerals, 2801 Madison Ave.; 877-6500 may be called for details of the arrangements. Burial will be at Sunset Hill Cemetery, Edwardsville Township.

Stella Sak dies at age 67 in Belleville

Stella E. Sak, 67, lifelong resident of Fairmont City, died Tuesday, Aug. 27, 1985, at Memorial Hospital in Belleville. She retired from Armour and Co. after 20 years there and then from the Christian Welfare Hospital's Geriatric Infant Center after 20 years.

She was the sister of Stanley Sak of Madison and Mrs. Richard (Clara) Horbelt of Granite City. The funeral was at 10 a.m. Friday at Holy Rosary Church in Fairmont City. Burial was at St. Adalbert's Cemetery in Fairview Heights.

Plat for Georgetown

The same size as the other homes in Lakeview Estates, Layman said. The new lots also contain at least 6,000 square feet, the minimum allowed by the village's zoning ordinance, he said.

But Trustee Lou Whitsell said he didn't think one lot was large enough for a house.

There are objections from the people because they bought with the understanding there'd be three houses, not five," Steve Knogl of 22 Westgate Drive said about development on Georgetown Drive. Westgate intersects Georgetown Drive east of the cul-de-sac.

"LET ME get all the concrete poured on the five foundations so the trucks don't go over the road," Layman said. "Then I'll put the curb and gutter and the drainage in."

"I graded it (Georgetown Drive) today, and I'm going to haul rock out tomorrow, and the rain's going to come in and ruin it," Layman said.

But Trustee Don Rea said he would not approve the plat unless Layman's intent to provide for drainage was in writing.

"I STILL need occupancy permits," Layman responded. "I'm building 550,000 homes down there. Do you think I'm not going to do the work so I won't get occupancy permits?"

Pontoon Beach hires

ing to village efforts to chip and seal a street in Lakeview Estates.

VINCENT and Trustee Bob Abel voted against hiring a street superintendent.

In other personnel action, Police Chief Chet Bailew was given a 5 percent wage increase.

Abel made a motion to grant the raise, saying the chief was not entitled to overtime, as are other police officers in the village.

BUT MADISON said the Fair Labor Standards Act indicates a police chief is entitled to overtime, based on 40 hours per week.

"It hasn't been three months ago we gave the chief and all his employees a 5 percent raise," Rea said.

THE WAGE increases were granted to the village's police officers July 23, but were retroactive to May 1.

The police chief is the manager of the police department, Rea said.

"I can't expect any manager to say I can't work overtime," he said.

WILSON SAID Bailew had not approached him about a raise.

"I'm trying to get him more money because he deserves it," Abel added.

Madison and Rea were the only trustees voting against the police chief's raise.

MEANWHILE, the trustees tabled adoption of the Fair Labor Standards Act until the attorney can review it. Madison had urged the board to adopt the act.

The trustees did approve overtime pay for police officers, subject to the village attorney's interpretation of the Fair Labor Standards Act.

A 25 percent raise was given to Building Inspector Bob Morgan. Trustee Lou Whitsell cast the only dissenting vote.

REA HAD MADE a motion that the building inspector issue building permits only after the village board's approval.

But Wilson objected to the motion, saying persons applying for a building permit would have to wait until a village board meeting before their permit would be issued.

Rea's motion was defeated when Wilson cast a tie-breaking vote against the motion.

FINALLY, the trustees hired Andrea Patterson as a part-time police dispatcher.

Although he voted to hire her, Rea objected to the fact that Patterson was hired prior to board approval.

Names have stories to tell

the name Junior. It all stemmed from an incident with a neighbor.

"My father used to work on a swing shift, and he used to get home about mid-morning," he said. "About the time my father would drop off to sleep, the woman next door would call her son in for lunch. The boy's name was Junior."

"She would yell 'Junior' really loud and I guess it would keep my dad from sleeping."

The lack of periods between the R and C in R C's name has caused him quite a few problems. His new business cards at the entrance of the old Michel Brothers Grocery Store, 2205 State St., in the fall of 1914.

Chubby said on that day he went to the grocery store with his mother and, for some unknown reason, his mother left him outside on the sidewalk.

"A woman came along and you know how people fuss over children," he said. "She said 'Hello there, young man.' Then she opened the door and said she was going to let me in the store. She looked back at me and said 'Isn't he chubby?'"

"Well, I was wearing a red, white and blue sweater and I had a pot belly that stuck out like a balloon. The young men at the counter in the store picked up on the name and kept calling me that."

Chubby said he has never been offended by the name. He said he currently weighs less than 200 pounds and has a devoted wife who governs his food intake religiously.

Because of his size, he said many people are disappointed when they meet him.

"They look at me and wonder why my nickname is Chubby," he said. "They wonder where all of my weight went."

What's in a nickname? Apparently it's a story that's almost as colorful as the person it was given to.

Cucumbers

The cool summer vegetable classic

DILL SAUCE
1 1/4 cups peeled, seeded and diced cucumber
1 pt. sour cream
2 tps. grated onion
3 tps. white wine vinegar
Scant 1/4 cup finely chopped dill
1 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. cayenne pepper or to taste
1 sprig fresh dill

Combine all ingredients 2 hours before serving.
Refrigerate until ready to use.
Garnish with sprig of fresh dill.
Makes 6 servings.

MAYONNAISE
2 cups mayonnaise
5 tps. sweet-hot mustard
Combine ingredients 2 hours before serving. Refrigerate until ready to use.
Makes 6 servings.

FIG FLOWERS WITH RASPBERRIES
6 tps. red currant jelly
1 1/4 cups whipping cream
2 tps. confectioner's sugar
2 tps. vanilla extract or 1 tsp. eau de framboise
18 figs
1 1/2 cups raspberries
18 candied violets
Bring jelly to boil. Remove from heat and allow to cool to room temperature. Whip cream, sugar and vanilla until it forms soft peaks. Keep refrigerated until ready to assemble. Just before serving, cut figs into quarters without cutting through the fruit. Press center of figs so quarters open like petals. Fold jelly into raspberries, being careful not to crush berries.

To serve, line dinner plate with whipped cream. Place 3 figs on each plate. Fill center of each fig with heaping tablespoon of raspberries. Top with candied violet. Serve immediately.
Serves 6.

Critique of pure raisins

Raisins — they're chewy, naturally sweet, packed with food energy and a favorite with kids. And since they're very plentiful this year, there's every reason to enjoy raisins — alone or in your favorite dishes.

Grape season may come and go, but dry them and they can be enjoyed all year long. The drying of fruit is an ancient process, in use as long ago as 1490 B.C. Early Greeks and Romans believed dried grapes to possess amazing curative powers which would improve the health of anyone who ate them. (All medicine should taste so good!) In fact, raisins are a good source of potassium, phosphorus, iron and vitamin B-1.

Raisins generally are produced from the large Muscat grape (seeded), or from the seedless Thompson and Sultan varieties. They may be dried by the sun, or by artificial heat. It takes about 4 1/2 pounds of grapes to produce 1 pound of raisins. The drying process removes about 50 percent of the grape's water, but its nutrients remain intact, in a highly concentrated form.

Refrigerate in a tightly covered container (heat will cause raisins to dry out). They may be frozen, and will defrost quickly at room temperature. To plump raisins for cooking purposes, soak in hot water 10 to 15 minutes.

Raisins are a favorite take-along snack with hikers and picnickers, since they're easy to pack and there's nothing to throw away. They're a tasty, natural treat in brown-bag lunches, and add sweet, chewy goodness to baked goods, desserts, puddings and salads.

Just one note of caution — brush your teeth thoroughly after eating raisins as they can be culprits in causing tooth decay.

RAISIN-LENTIL SALAD
1 cup dried lentils
2 cups water
1/4 tsp. dried tarragon
1/4 tsp. each salt and pepper
1/4 cup wine vinegar
2 tps. vegetable oil
1 large tomato, chopped
1/2 cup raisins
1/4 cup sliced green onion

Putting Southwest into your kitchen routine for a change

Take a vacation from the same old routine eating by trying something new this summer. South-of-the-Border cooking will bring a little of the Southwest into your kitchen and make meal and party time more fun. The warm weather sets the perfect mood for this spicy cuisine.

One-dish Tamale Casserole provides a simple and delicious dining experience. The mild barbecue flavor of the beef topped with a tamale-like corn meal bread is an easy-to-assemble meal that makes a picture-perfect fiesta dinner for guests.

If you like the rich, homey flavors of Southern corn bread, you'll want to try a new classic, Mexican Corn Bread. Green chilies add a special zest to the corn and cheese blend. You'll probably want to make a double batch so you'll have left-overs for brown bag lunches and snacks.

*** An old Mexican proverb: A full belly makes a happy heart. ***

Tamale Casserole

1 lb. ground beef
1/2 cup chopped onion
1/2 cup chopped green pepper
1/2 cup barbecue sauce
1 1/2 cups (6 oz.) shredded cheddar or colby cheese

1 1/2 cups water
1 cup Quaker or Aunt Jemima Enriched Corn Meal
1 tablespoon margarine or butter
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 egg, beaten

Heat oven to 350°F. Brown ground beef with onion and green pepper; drain. Stir in barbecue sauce; mix well. Spread into 8-inch square glass baking dish. Sprinkle 1 cup cheese over beef mixture.

Combine water, corn meal, margarine and salt; bring to a boil, stirring constantly. Reduce heat; cook about 1 minute or until very thick, stirring constantly. Stir small amount of hot mixture into egg; return to pan and mix well. Spread corn meal over beef mixture; bake 30 minutes. Sprinkle remaining 1/2 cup cheese over casserole; continue baking about 1 minute or until cheese is melted.

*** An old Mexican proverb: He who is hungry thinks of bread. ***

Mexican Corn Bread

3/4 cup Quaker or Aunt Jemima Enriched Corn Meal
4 teaspoons baking powder
1 tablespoon sugar (optional)
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup (4 oz.) shredded cheddar cheese
1 cup dairy sour cream
One 8-oz. can whole kernel corn, drained

One 4-oz. can chopped green chilies, drained
2 eggs, beaten
2 tablespoons vegetable oil

Heat oven to 400°F. Grease 9-inch square baking pan or 10-inch oven-proof skillet. Combine dry ingredients. Stir in remaining ingredients; mix just until blended. Pour into prepared pan. Bake about 35 minutes or until gold brown.

• Raisins

Large head lettuce
1 small onion, cut into rings and separated
2 tbsps. chopped fresh parsley

Place lentils in large pot with water, tarragon, salt and pepper. Bring to boil over medium-high heat, then reduce heat and simmer, covered, 25 to 30 minutes. Lentils should be tender but not mushy. Drain well.

Turn lentils into bowl and add vinegar, oil, tomato, raisins and green onion. Toss gently to combine. Cover and chill about 1 hour. Wash lettuce and line salad bowl with leaves; or arrange leaves on individual plates. Spoon raisin/lentil mixture over lettuce and garnish with onion rings and parsley.

Serves 4 to 6.

Light Strawberry Lemon Spritz

Puree 1 cup fresh or unsweetened frozen strawberries in blender. Combine with 1/2 cup club soda, 2 tablespoons lemon juice and 1 or 2 packets aspartame in tall glasses and stir. Add enough ice to fill glasses.
Makes 8-ounce servings, 44 calories, 1 fruit on diabetic exchange.

Lemon-Peach Frost

In blender combine one-half cup vodka, one-half cup frozen lemonade concentrate and one-half drained sliced or fresh peaches.
Continue to blend, slowly add 3 cups ice cubes until mixture becomes frozen and thick.
Four in stemmed glass. Garnish with lemon wedge.
Serves 4.

YOU CAN BANK on it!

E. A. KARANDJEFF
Chairman
Central Bank of Granite City

Q. I have a friend in another city who open up an investment advisory account at his local bank. Without going into any details, he seems pleased. What is this and do you have to be wealthy to open one?

A. The investment advisory account or investment advisory agency account, is a service wherein the bank acts as an investment advisor for the customer. You do not have to be wealthy to participate. You do need to have some investment money available that is not needed for living expenses or typical emergencies. Custodial account services are provided, as well as full investment supervision of the funds in the account. The customer is advised of any investment action deemed worthy of his consideration, based on the experience and expert advice of the account managers. The customer then makes the decision as to whether or not action should be taken to make the suggested investment. The account is similar to a trust service, without a trust or fiduciary service, when the bank acts on behalf of the customer. An investment management account takes this one step further by acting with full management discretion on the customer's behalf.

OF DRAFT PERMIT

Public Notice Number G-9706, hereby given by Illinois EPA, Division of Water Pollution Control, Permit Section, 2200 Churchill Road, Springfield, Illinois 62768 (hereinafter "Agency") that a draft National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System (NPDES) Permit No. 224-01-001 has been prepared under 40 C.F.R. 122.41(a)(1) for Electric Company, P.O. Box 149, St. Louis, MO 63168, hereinafter "the Applicant." The electric company's main steam electric generating station, located at the intersection of Main Street and McKinley Bridge Parkway, #202, is an existing fossil fueled steam electric generating station which provides steam for six turbine driven generators with a combined capacity of 467 MW. All water discharges are made with natural gas and can burn NO<sub>2</sub> fuel oil. A combustion gas scrubber unit on-site can provide an additional 100 MW of power. Cooling and service water for power plant operation is withdrawn from the Mississippi River. A cooling water circulation system is used to cool the main condensers of each turbine. The discharge to the Mississippi River for dissolved solids and suspended matter is controlled. A municipal water supply is used in the station for heating and potable systems. Station process wastewater and stormwater runoff are discharged into ash pond #3 which has no discharge to the Mississippi River. Operation of this station will be governed by a State Operating Permit.

The Application, draft permit and other documents are available for inspection and may be copied at a cost of $1.00 per page at the Agency between 9:30 A.M. and 3:30 P.M., Monday through Friday. A fact sheet containing more detailed information is available at no charge. For further information, contact the Public Notice Clerk at 217-261-2111.

Interested persons are invited to submit written comments on the draft permit to the Agency at the address above or to the NPDES Permit and Joint Public Notice numbers mentioned on each hearing page. All comments must be received no later than 30 days from the date of this publication and shall constitute evidence in the final decision regarding the issuance.

Any interested person may submit written requests for a public hearing on the draft permit, stating their reasons therefor, the nature of the issues proposed to be raised and the relief requested. Requests to be presented with regards to the issues to be heard in the hearing. Such requests must be received by the Agency not later than 30 days from the date of this publication.

If written comments or requests indicate a significant degree of public interest in the draft permit, the Agency may, at its discretion, hold a public hearing. The public notice will be given 30 days before any public hearing.

NOTICE

Sealed bids are now being accepted until 2:00 p.m. U.S.W.A., Local 67, 2334 East 1st Avenue, Granite City, Illinois 62040, for re-roofing, from Union Contractors only. Bids to be opened on Sept. 15, 1985. Call for proposal number 618-452-3430.

Dated: 8/29/91

Dancers to perform at Northwest Plaza

Dancers from the Dance '85 Dance Company of Salem Dance Center will be performing three shows Saturday, Sept. 7, at Northwest Plaza Shopping Center in St. Louis.

There will be performances at 2, 3 and 4 p.m. near the center fountain to help kick off the United Way drive. Approximately 30 dancers will participate.

Films in focus

OPENINGS
"FRIGHT NIGHT" (R) Not Reviewed — Chris Sarandon plays a suave vampire on the prowl for young victims. Roddy McDowell and William Ragsdale try to stop him. With Stephen Geoffreys and Amanda Bearse. Tom Holland wrote and directed.

"LILY IN LOVE" (PG-13) Fair — Christopher Plummer is an acting peacock with his tailfeathers spread, playing a matinee idol akin to Peter O'Toole in "My Favorite Year." Maggie Smith is his playwright wife, who smiles wanly at his excesses. She writes a film that is her fantasy revenge, and he slyly slips into it impersonating a honey-charmed Italian star. He cuckolds himself, amusingly, but then the film flops into awkward revelation and muffled ironies. Too bad — we and the game stars deserve better. Shot mostly in a drab-looking Budapest by Karoly Makk. With Elke Sommers and toothy Adolph Green.

"SESAME STREET PRESENTS: FOLLOW THAT BIRD" (G) Not Reviewed — Sesame Street's Big Bird vanishes after he is placed in a new home and his old friends set out to find him. With Sandra Bernhard, John Candy, Chevy Chase, Joe Flaherty, Waylon Jennings and Dave Thomas. Directed by Ken Kwapis.

"WEIRD SCIENCE" (PG-13) Good — Anthony Michael Hall and Ian Mitchell-Smith are the very engaging buddies who don't have a girlfriend and decide to create one with the help of a magical computer. The dreamy result is Kelly Le Brock ("Woman in Red") who provides the boys with more thrills than they ever imagined. Director-writer John Hughes ("Breakfast Club") nearly breaks the charm of this male Cinderella fantasy by overdoing special effects.

Manhattan Transfer slated Aug. 31

ST. LOUIS — The Manhattan Transfer is coming with its vocal blends and vocal mood. Composed of Tim Hauser, Janis Siegel, Alan Paul and Cheryl Bently, this foursome will perform its renditions of everything from "doo-woop" and jazz to pop at The Fox Theater, Aug. 31 for one show only.

While the Transfer has made recordings earning seven Grammys with singular LPs such as "Extensions," "Mecca for Moderns" and "Bodies and Souls," never before have these singers demonstrated their ability to focus on one particular style as they have on "Vocalese," their most recent album for Atlantic Records.

"Vocalese" is not only the name of The Manhattan Transfer's 10th album, it's also the genre of jazz singing where lyrics are added to recorded instrumental jazz solos. It was invented by the late singer, Eddie Jefferson, who in 1941 wrote words to tenor saxophonist Coleman Hawkins' 1939 version of Johnny Green's "Body and Soul."

"This is our best at what we do," Hauser, who produced the LP, said, "I don't mean to sound like I'm bragging, but I feel this is state-of-the-art for jazz vocal singing. There's never been an album like this before."

The list of guest stars on "Vocalese" covers many eras of jazz, including are performances by the Count Basie orchestra directed by Thad Jones, the Four Freshmen, Bobby McFerrin, trumpeter Dizzy Gillespie, pianists McCoy Tyner, Tommy Flanagan and Walter David Jr., drummers Philly Joe Jones and Grady Tate, bassists Ray Brown and Ron Carter and saxophonists James Moody and Richie Cole.

The Manhattan Transfer was established in 1972 when Hauser, who at different times was an executive with a large marketing and advertising firm and a New York City cab driver, decided he wanted to form a vocal harmony group, basing his voice parts around the sound of the Count Basie sax section.

He met Siegel, who was in an all-girl group called "Laurel Canyon." Alan Paul had been doing "Grease" on Broadway for a year, and Laurel Masse (who was replaced by Cheryl Bently in 1979) was the fourth member to join the group. They rehearsed for six months and then started singing in selected New York cabarets.

With the release of "Extensions" in 1980, the Transfer soared to popularity. Bently, who had just replaced Masse, debuted her voice on the "Extensions" LP. They also sang "Birdland," the jazz/fusion number featuring a vocal arrangement by Siegel. The two Grammys for "Birdland" led to five others.

Tickets may be purchased at the Fox Box Office located at 527 N. Grand Blvd., St. Louis, Regal Sports at 3131 Olive, all Famous Barr and Dillard's Ticketmaster locations, and Teams Toys and Tickets at Chesterfield Mall and Northwest Plaza. To order tickets by phone, interested persons may call 1-314-534-1111.

St. Louis Symphony Society announces its annual gala plans

The St. Louis Symphony Society has announced plans for its annual gala in the ballroom of the Omni Hotel at the recently renovated St. Louis Station, 8 p.m., Oct. 11. The event is planned in conjunction with the Women's Association of the Symphony.

Special guests at the gala will include Music Director and Conductor Leonard Slatkin and members of the St. Louis Symphony. This year's gala is designed as a city-wide celebration of the recent accomplishments of the orchestra, including a European tour and the receipt of two Grammy awards.

Tickets for the event, which includes cocktails, dinner and entertainment by a "Big Band" dance band, are $150. Patron tickets are available for $250. Patrons receive valet parking, special reserved seating and recognition in the program.

Mayor Vincent Schoemehl and County Executive Gene McNary are the honorary co-chairmen for the event. Lee Liberman, chairman of the Laclede Gas Co. and president of the St. Louis Symphony Society, and Vicki Mayer, a member of the Women's Association, serve as co-chairmen for the gala.

A highlight of the evening is a special tribute to the Symphony, planned by St. Louis Symphony Society board members Ben Wells, Hadley Griffin and Steve Schankman.

To purchase tickets for the gala, interested persons may contact Gerri Crowder at the symphony office, 1-314-533-2500.

Union Station reopens

Granite City was well represented Thursday at the reopening ceremonies at St. Louis Union Station. The 170-member Granite City High School Band and auxiliary units were part of the St. Louis Union Station Marching Band.

The huge band, believed to have had 5,000 members, is the world's largest marching band and is to be listed in the Guinness Book of World Records.

Speeches by politicians and other dignitaries, antique cars, people dressed in 19th century clothes, a large high school choral group and the world-record band were all part of the reopening ceremonies on Market Street in front of the train station.

The 91-year-old structure has been converted into a shopping mall and hotel complex. It was the world's largest train station, having 42 tracks coming into it. At one point during its history, as many as 18 different railroads used the station.

TRUMPETS HERALD rededication ceremonies.

Warrior gridders victim of Vikings' speed

By JAMES BLASINGAME
Staff writer

DANVILLE — The Granite City High School football team had its debut here Friday night, and although the performance, a 26-12 loss to the host Vikings, didn't draw any curtain calls, the Warriors did deserve a howl or two.

Offensively, Granite City showed promise. Quarterback Timmy Hogan and flanker Jamie Hogan played catch in the Vikings' secondary on several occasions, resulting in two Warrior touchdowns. And runningbacks Ron Owens, Pat Keeling and Dave Bamber ran with a vengeance behind some fine blocking in the third period, as Granite City put together an impressive scoring drive.

But it was two inopportune turnovers that turned Granite City's epic into a tragedy. The biggest one came with ten minutes remaining in the contest with the Warriors on the move at Danville's 28-yard-line.

At that point, Granite City trailed 20-12 and had "O! Mo!" on their side, after just scoring on Jamie's seven-yard sideline reception. However, Danville's defensive stunt caused a fumble in the Warrior backfield, and the curtain was closed on Granite City.

"Offensively, that one fumble inside the 30 really took the air out of our sails," said Warrior head coach Ron Yates.

"If we'd have scored there, it would have been 20-18, and a two-point conversion would have tied it. But then they come right back and scored."

Granite City's best offensive possession took place soon after the second-half kickoff. The Vikings scored on their first series in the half, and after the ensuing kick, the Warriors took over at their own 19. Timmy Hogan directed his teammates 41 yards for the score. Short passes to "brother Jamie," and slashing carries by Warrior backs moved the ball to the Danville seven, setting up the TD pass to Jamie.

"This early in the season, to put together a drive like that — that's promising," said Yates. "We just pushed it down their throat, tackle to tackle. I think our O (offense) is solid. I think we're okay. If we had scored one more, and they hadn't. If we hadn't fumbled. If, if, if..." he said, shaking his head.

As Yates confessed later, the one area of concern in the Warriors' game plan was their defense.

"We came in questioning our defense," the coach said. "Our interior defensive line needs work. When you lose Luff and Cook (Chris Luffman and Lonnie Cook, both graduated this summer), there's two big holes there. We've got four or five guys competing for a defensive tackle spot and none of them are returning lettermen."

The Warrior defense may not have shut down Danville's attack, but from the looks of the Vikings' backfield, a few other teams will have the same problem this season. The reason? They're quick. They're REAL quick.

Trying to corral Danville's backs is a little like trying to catch those annoying flies at family picnics. But at least when you hit a fly, it stops. These guys don't.

The Viking ballcarriers, Terry Thomas, Sean Murray and Ray Starks, and quarterback Stacy Robinson, cut and darted through and around Warrior defenders all evening, doing most of the damage on traps, off-tackle plays, and quarterback keepers.

"The quickness of their backs really impressed me," said Yates. "Our tackling was a little sloppy, but quickness from runningbacks produces sloppy tackling. The quickness produces diving. Good runningbacks can make you look bad. But we're going to see that kind of speed all year. We play East St. Louis and Cahokia. This was a good test. It should wake the guys up."

The Warriors didn't need any waking up on their first possession. Granite City forced a Danville punt and took over at its own 35. Five plays later, the Hogan connection struck. Jamie jumped in front of two defenders to haul in Timmy's throw and then scampered into the endzone to complete the 45-yard score. After a miscue on the extra point attempt, the Warriors led 6-0.

Danville then took Ryan Weeks' kickoff and marched 69 yards. From five yards out, Robinson hit Murray for a score, and the Vikings went up 7-6.

After the teams exchanged possessions, Danville added six more points to its lead. With just 40 seconds left in the second quarter, Robinson rolled right and threw back across the field to Murray, who squeezed his second TD reception of the half, this one from 22 yards out. Danville missed the point after, and the score stood at 13-6 at the intermission.

"For the first, opening game, I gave the offense and the defense a 'B,'" said Vikings coach Nate Cunningham. "I was pleased with all of our kids tonight. They did well. And I have a great deal of respect for Granite City. They didn't fold. They played good, hard football until the end, and they are to be commended. It was a good opening day test (for Danville)."

The Vikings' final touchdown came with three minutes remaining. Robinson bootlegged his way around the left end for a 31-yard score.

AIR HOGAN. Quarterback Tim Hogan of the Granite City High School football team rears back to fire a pass during the Warriors season opener against Danville. Chasing Hogan are the Vikings Chuck Crowder and Jason Baker (78). The Warriors lost 26-12 Friday night.

Ticket Winner!

CORRECT GUESS. Jim McCabe of Granite City is the winner of two free St. Louis Cardinal baseball tickets. McCabe, 25, predicted that the Reds would beat the Cardinals 7-6 Wednesday night. As for his guess, McCabe was looking at a 1976 commemorative Hudepohl Beer Can marking the Reds World Series victory. The beer, brewed in Cincinnati, inspired his entry. McCabe received two tickets to the Cardinals Sept. 26 game with Philadelphia.

GCHS soccer opener changed

The site of Granite City High School's opening varsity soccer game has been changed, school officials reported. As a result the Warriors will open the season at Alton.

The Wednesday, Sept. 4 game will be played the Gauntlet, located next to the high school football field, due to a scheduling conflict at Alton. Gametime is 5 p.m. for the junior varsity contest. The varsity game will begin at approximately 6:30 p.m.

As a result of the switch the Warriors Sept. 30 game with the Redbirds will be played at Alton.

Scouts hold 10K run

Boy Scout Troop 13 of Granite City is sponsoring both a 10K and a two-mile fun run Monday, Sept. 2, in Granite City.

Sponsored in cooperation with Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company of Alton, the event will begin at 7:30 a.m. at St. Elizabeth Church. Contestants will vie in five different divisions for men and women: 14 and under; 15-25; 26-35; 36-49 and 50 and older. Plaques will be awarded to the top male and female finisher and medals to the top three finishers in each category.

The entry fee for either the 10K or two-mile fun run is $4. After registration contestants will receive a Pepsi Challenge 10K T-shirt.

Persons wishing to register for either race should send their name, address, age and birth date, phone number; T-shirt size and which of the two races they plan to participate in to: Boy Scout Troop 13, 32 Oaklawn Drive, Granite City, Ill. 62040.

Case fires an ace

GRANITE CITY — Gene Case fired a hole-in-one Thursday, Aug. 29 at Arlington Golf Course. Case used a seven iron on the Par 3, 12th hole. Witnessing the ace were scorer Don Padgett, Sam Stoyanoff and Leo Padgett.

Benefit tourney is slated

The Granite City Amateur Hockey Association is sponsoring a softball tournament. It will be at the Madison diamonds Sept. 13, 14, 15. Prize money will be awarded, and entry fee is $75 per team. Anyone interested, or for more information, call 931-2052 or 877-2892.

Fall leagues in Madison

A fall softball league is currently being organized in Madison according to Jim Broadway the Madison Recreation director.

"I've had several managers from all over ask me about starting a fall league. Due to the interest in softball and the excellent diamond we have in Madison, I thought I'd ask for teams interested to sign up," Broadway said.

The league would be on Tuesday and Thursday evenings. The entry fee would be $150 according to Broadway.

Anyone interested should call Broadway at 451-1440.

QCSA parade, signups slated

The Quad-Cities Soccer Association, which annually serves thousands of local youth, will kick off its 1985 fall season with a parade Saturday, Sept. 7.

The parade, which starts at Nameoki School and will conclude at the St. Elizabeth soccer fields with season-opening ceremonies, is an annual pilgrimage east down Ponton Road in which all QCSA youths participate.

QCSA is signing youths for a new under 16 boys' league, those born in 1970 and 1971. This fall is the first season for this league. Younger soccer players not currently in a team are invited to register for a team this fall.

Parents wishing to register their child in a league should call the QCSA Hotline at 877-1282.

Guelker seeks his 300th

EDWARDSVILLE — Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville's head soccer coach, Bob Guelker, could etch his name deeper into the collegiate soccer record book next week as he shoots for victories 299 and 300 as the Cougars open their 19th season with a pair of games at Cougar Field.

The Cougars, who open the season Sunday with a 1:30 p.m. against Southeast Missouri State University, could make Guelker the third coach in collegiate soccer history to win 300 games Sept. 3 when they face the University of Missouri-Rolla in a scheduled 7:30 p.m. game.

Two victories over these opponents would push Guelker into the prestigious "300" club, joining Steve Negroso of the University of San Francisco and Bill Shellenburger of Lynchburg College. Guelker, who initiated the soccer program at both SIUE and St. Louis University, enters the 1985 season with a 298-69-26 record, having posted a 203-60-21 record in 18 years at SIUE.

Their Sept. 1 match against SEMO will mark the second consecutive time the Cougars have opened the season against the Indians. Last year, SIUE posted a 6-0 victory and pushed their series record against the Indians to 2-0. The Cougars have never squared off against the University of Missouri-Rolla in soccer.

Pat Cathey, a 1985 graduate of Granite City High School, has signed a letter of intent to play baseball for Greenville College.

Cathey, a first baseman, was an All-Southwestern Conference selection last season for the Warriors. Cathey batted .386, the fourth best average in the SWC, and had 25 RBIs. He had a fielding percentage of .998.

Tickets available for banquet

GRANITE CITY — Tickets for the second annual Ducks Unlimited banquet to be held Friday, Sept. 6, are available at two local banking institutions, First Granite City National Bank and First Savings of Granite City.

According to Tony Zedolek, local chapter president and banquet chairman, "tickets are available" at each location and may be purchased for $25 or $40 a pair. First Granite City National Bank is located at 20th and Edison and First Savings is located at 1825 Delmar.

The affair will be held at the Granite City Knights of Columbus Hall, 4225 Old Alton Road and begins at 6 p.m.

Radio personalities Lee Sherwood and Frank O. Pinlon, disc jockeys for KUSA-Radio 55-AM in St. Louis, have been slated as guest speakers for the upcoming annual banquet. Zedolek feels the fund-raising function should be marked on the calendar by anyone who is interested in the future of North America's waterfowl.

"The Ducks Unlimited success story," said Zedolek, "is really starting to spread around. Banquets much like our chapter event held throughout the country last year contributed towards Ducks Unlimited's national fund-raising effort, which raised $38.2 million during 1983 alone. But what's even more important to realize," said Zedolek, "is that this national fund-raising total must increase this year if the North American waterfowl habitat race is to be won."

DU's sportsmen/conversationists founders, discovered through surveys conducted 45 years ago that 70 percent of North America's waterfowl production occurs in Canada. They figured out back in 1937 what holds true today. Since Federal duck stamp dollars cannot be spent beyond U.S. borders, sportsmen funds earmarked for waterfowl conservation are not getting to the places where the great percentage of production takes place. But through Ducks Unlimited's efforts, over $27 million has been raised in the U.S. since 1937. And the lion's share of every one of those dollars has been sent to DU Canada to reserve some 3.3 million acres of prime habitat encompassing over 2,400 wetland projects.

The only problem in all this is that biologists estimate millions of additional acres of habitat must be reserved in order to stabilize North America's waterfowl population. When you consider that habitat today is diminishing due to agricultural and development pressures, and that DU is the only non-profit conservation organization involved in the Canadian waterfowl habitat race, you can begin to see the significance attached to the organization's fund-raising events.

The price of a banquet ticket includes a prime rib dinner, a one-year DU membership and a subscription to the organization's magazine. Following dinner there will be an auction of collector art prints and decoys. Items from such famous artists as Maynard Reece, Lynn Kaatz, and Tom Taber included in this year's auction.

Persons seeking further information about DU or for banquet reservations, persons should call Zedolek at 877-2458.
